USHER BOARD PRESIDENT

Pastor and Sunday School Members Attend National Baptist Convention

Pastor Kendall D. Jones, Sr., Mrs. Ethel Brooks, and Mrs. Peggy McCullough attended the 103rd Annual Session of the National Baptist Congress of Christian Education Convention in Louisville, Kentucky, June 15-21, 2008. The Theme for the "Christ-Centered Congress" was "The Heavenly Vision: The Morals of the Church." Proverbs 6:16-19 and Micah 6:8 were selected scriptures.

"Growing Our Church through Sunday School" was the course study for the week. Much discussion was centered around the Theme—"Jesus Christ Only — Always," focusing on Vision, Integrity, Structure, and Accountability. Emphasis was placed on:

1. reviewing the Sunday School's effectiveness for Christian Church growth
2. reviewing and refreshing the ways organizational growth in the Sunday School benefits the church
3. becoming increasingly aware of the challenges in preparation and practices of Christian growth in the church
4. being effective teachers for our youth and relating to their needs as they are confronted with many choices

Our delegates to the convention headed home on a spiritual high after enjoying classes and fellowship with others in attendance. They hope to be able to use ideas and suggestions they received in their classes to help our Sunday School grow.

Rev. Azurée D. Johnson Receives Her Master of Divinity Degree

Rev. Azurée D. Johnson graduated from Wake Forest University Divinity School on Monday, May 19, 2008 at Commencement. A weekend long event, Rev. Johnson received her Divinity Hood during a Saturday evening ceremony. As a custom of the Divinity School, faculty members selected individual scriptures which captured each student journey during divinity school. The faculty picked 1st Corinthians 14:12 for Rev. Johnson which states "Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to edifying of the church." As each student was hooded, their scripture was read.

On Monday, Rev. Johnson received her graduate degree and The John Thomas and Dorothy Porter Award. This award is named after Rev. Dr. John Thomas Porter who was Pastor at the Sixth Avenue Baptist Church in Birmingham, Alabama and a civil rights advocate who was the first African American elected into Alabama legislature in the 1960's. Dorothy Porter was an outstanding musician for the upcoming school year. During the 2009-1010 school year, the school will move to its permanent Kernersville location. Kerry was one of several hundred applicants vying for one of only twelve basketball positions available for entry into the new academy. Veritas students will be competing at the highest level of high school basketball. In all, there will be 100 students playing one of five sports offered at the school. There were several steps to the admittance process, including placement tests, a written essay, and a face-to-face personal interview with staff. Kerry, who plays for the CP3 All-Stars AAU basketball team, will play at the guard position. At veritas, Kerry will take regular academic classes, along with Bible-centered character education. During the summer of 2009, he will travel with his school abroad, participating in basketball camps and doing missionary work. At New Bethel, Kerry is a member of the Junior Usher Board. He is the son of Kerry and Pam Campbell.

Chosen Champions For Jesus

By Diane Piggott

Chosen Champions for Jesus, an Urban Ministries, Inc. product, was used to run a 5-day Vacation Bible School at New Bethel Baptist Church. The school began each evening, June 23 – 27, 2008 at 6 p.m. with a wholesome meal for all in attendance. Classes began after 6:30 p.m. devotional service. Mrs. Diane Piggott and Ms. Audrey Brown alternated the leadership role for the week.

Classes were in place for ages 3 and up. Ms. Debbie Frazier, Mrs. Shari Summey, Ms. Elaine Brown, Ms. Ruby Cain and Ms. Timeka Couthen worked with those ages 3 to 6, called Beginners. Mrs. Deronda Kee-Lucas, Mrs. Lynda Brown and Mrs. Awilda Neal worked with ages 7 to 9. Mrs. Connie Smith, Mrs. Romaine Eaton and Mr. T. J. Williams instructed those ages 10 to 12. The Teens, ages 13 and 15 performed a liturgical dance and a song. Their instructors were Ms. Barbara Phelps, Ms. Cherelle Phelps and Rev. Azuree Johnson. The youth, ages 16 to 20 who were instructed by Deacon Joe Bartley and Mr. Keith Smith did a "lesson recap." Rev. Bjorn Cooper was instructor for the adults. All of the youth joined forces to perform a musical finale. Working with the music for the week were Mr. Dale Hairston, Minister of Music at New Bethel and Mrs. Peggy McCullough, church pianist. The students created some wonderful crafts under the direction of Mrs. Alfreda Smith, Mrs. Lennetta Bartley, Ms. Valjean McKinney, Mrs. Jackie Posey and Ms. Beverly Brown. The kitchen Committee spearheaded by Mrs. Sharon Grooms served delicious meals each evening with an old-fashioned cookout on Friday. Others working in the kitchen were: Mrs. Elinor Walker, Mrs. Jannie Smith, Mrs. Barbara Carson, Mrs. Mary Bradley, Mrs. Sue Leach and Mrs. Romaine Eaton.

Special thanks goes to Deacon Douglas Joyner for his famous punch, Ms. Patricia Mumford, who donated gifts for the youth attendees.

118 Years United In Spirit

By Diane Piggott

Rev. Dr. James D. Ballard, Pastor Emeritus of United Metropolitan Baptist Church and Interim Pastor of First Baptist Church of Fuquay-Varina brought a message dealing with growth, unity and love as he addressed the 118th Anniversary audience of New Bethel Baptist Church at 11 a.m. on Sunday, June 8, 2008. The anniversary theme was "United in Spirit and Bound in Love."

Dr. Ballard came forward with accolades for Dr. Jerry Drayton, Pastor Emeritus of New Bethel who preached his Ordination Service in 1958 and gave Dr. Kendall D. Jones, Sr., Senior Pastor of New Bethel a hearty welcome to Winston-Salem. His opening remarks caused for a lot of introspection as he suggested, "Love is the means by which you grow in unity for without love people are separated." He challenged us to think as he asked, "Who are they that are united in love and bound? How far have you come? How much farther do you have to go? And lastly, How does each part or person strengthen each other?" Your theme implies that you are united! One cannot escape the scrutiny of God. Most of us are between "thank you, Jesus" and "help me, Jesus." You might ask, "What's love got to do with it! Paul tells us what love is and does in 2 Corinthians 13. This type of love takes its cue from Calvary. You need to keep your focus on God! Be that beacon of HOPE!" Finally Ballard declared, "We must UNITE as we strive for Christlikeness!"

Trustee John Lucas recognized gold and silver star members, I.E., those with 50 and 25 years of membership, respectively.

Mrs. Ruby Cain led a beautiful memorial service for deceased members from June 2007 to June 2008.

Dinner was served in the Multipurpose Room immediately following the service. Over 200 persons dined and fellowshiped.
